At Poway ADHC, we strive to improve the quality of life for older adults and caregivers while fostering an environment that preserves the dignity of our participants. We offer restorative / maintenance care, nursing supervision, social work services, and a structured, individualized program of therapeutic activities. We provide a physically and cognitively stimulating group atmosphere, and always look for new activities to incorporate into our programming. We take pride in advocating for our participants and acting as liaisons to their families and medical professionals to help prevent premature placement in long-term care facilities.

We welcome everyone to our beautiful, friendly day program of therapeutic, social and health services for the frail elderly and other adults with physical or mental impairments. We provide nursing, meals and transportation, social services and restorative therapies, such as physical, occupational, and speech, in a warm, caring and secured environment. Independence, self-expression and being part of a group helps adults, isolated by illness, disability or loss, maintain a positive orientation to life. We focus on the maintenance of physical and mental health, helping you to maintain as high a level of functioning as possible, thereby allowing you to remain in your home and community.
