2:30 PM – 4:00 PM

Operationalizing the CBAS Individual Plan of Care (IPC): A Focused Tour of Key Changes

WHAT WE'LL COVER

The long awaited CBAS IPC has finally arrived with implementation starting May 1, 2019. Gather your key team members for this afternoon webinar designed to supplement the training conducted by the CA Department of Aging on October 3, 2018.

CAADS' volunteer technical advisors, who have worked behind the scenes throughout this revision process, will walk you through new and changed IPC sections (boxes) that are critical to your success and discuss ideas for implementation. CAADS and CDA team members will be available to answer your questions. You will have an opportunity to submit questions in advance during the webinar registration process.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND

Center Program Directors and all members of the Multidisciplinary Team.

PRESENTERS

Diane Puckett is the founding Executive Director of Innovative Health Care Services, one of the first adult day health care programs in California to serve a rural area. Diane is a past president of CAADS' Board of Directors and has served as the Operational Consultant for ALE's Community Based Health Home Project since its inception.

Cori Miller, MSW is the Assistant Director of the Peg Taylor Center and has been part of a pioneering adult day health care program serving rural Northern California counties since 1991. Cori initially served as social worker and then became Program Director and Assistant Director.

Dawn Myers, MSW, has been in the field of aging for over 30 years and was 2010-2012 past president of the California Association of Adult Day Services. Dawn has been the Director of Yolo Adult Day Health Center for the past 23 years and is currently working on several innovative projects to expand ADHC outside of the four walls.

Jill Sparrow, MSW, is the Chief of the CBAS Branch at the CDA. Jill joined CDA in 2011, working first as an Aging Program Analyst II in the Health Insurance Counseling and Advocacy Program. Prior to her current position she was a field team manager in the CBAS Branch.
