(CAADS Members Only) [No CE Hours]

1:15 PM – 2:45 PM

SESSION 1 COURSES [No Break]

1-A CBAS Multidisciplinary Team Process

[No CE Hours] [ADHC]

Jeanette Fong, CBAS Field Operations Section Chief, CA Department of Aging

Leigh Witzke, RN, CBAS Nursing Operations Section Chief, CA Department of Aging

Julia Smith, CBAS Field Operations Team Manager, CA Department of Aging

Have you ever heard of the CBAS Hokey Pokey? If not, why not let the CDA Team teach it to you?! Join us as we share tips and tricks on what we look for in the health record, including assessments, care plans, and service documentation. Stick around until the very end and you'll be in for a fun and sweet surprise!

1-B Regulations and Hot Topics for Adult Day Programs

[1.5 CE Hours: CCLD] [ADP]

Shelly Grace, Assistant Branch Chief, Adult & Senior Care Program, CDSS

Araceli Ramirez, Assistant Program Manager, Adult & Senior Care Program, CDSS

Adult Day Programs often feel like they have been passed over when it comes to Community Care Licensing (CCL). This session aims to change that because it is designed to address your interests and questions as ADPs. Whether you are not yet licensed, new to ADP, or an experienced provider, you will explore with experts from CCL the latest hot topics in licensing, starting with a general overview of licensing requirements, to an in-depth look at what DSS surveyors are looking for when they visit. You will learn how to get technical assistance and work with your surveyor when you feel something cited doesn't seem like the regulation as you understand it.

3:00 PM – 4:30 PM

SESSION 2 COURSES [No Break]

2-A CDPH Licensing – Site Visits

[No CE Hours] [ADHC]

Monday, November 10, 2025

Adam Odabashian, Chief, Licensing and Certification Division, Center for Health Care Quality, CDPH

Jackie Lincer, Branch Chief, Southern California Region and Field Operations ADHC lead, CDPH

This session will walk through the essentials of what the California Department of Public Health (CDPH) focuses on during surveys, including who to expect on-site. We'll also compare CDPH's process and expectations with those of CDA and Managed Care, helping you see where the differences matter most. You'll learn the top five pitfalls to avoid and the top five best practices that can set your program up for success, drawn from real-world experiences and common trends across providers. The session will also cover current "hot topics" and updates on survey processes and regulatory oversight expected in the coming months and year.

2-B Harnessing the Power of Strengths: Empowering Individuals and Teams Through Positive Psychology

[1.5 CE Hours: CCLD, BRN, CAMFT, BOT] [ADP]

Amber Carey-Navarette, Director of Person-Centered Services – ADS, Easterseals Southern CA

This conference session will focus on strategies to empower individuals and teams by utilizing strength-based language and interactions, as established within the field of positive psychology. The session will address the effective application of these practices in supporting growth and development among those served as well as team members. Attendees will receive an overview of the 24 Character Strengths and their role in enhancing well-being and positive relationships. Interactive activities will be included to illustrate the application of a strength-based approach to support services. By affirming individual strengths, such techniques aim to increase motivation and engagement, while fostering a positive mindset. Furthermore, the presentation will include the technique of "strength-spotting" for identifying character strengths in others through daily interactions.

2025 CAADS FALL CONFERENCE AND ANNUAL MEETING

November 10-12, 2025 | Hotel Fera, Orange CA

Tuesday, November 11, 2025

- 3-B Community Supports Panel [No CE Hours] [ADHC]
Katie Panarella, Program Director, Community Supports, Anthem
Randy VonFeldt, Senior Manager, Provider Engagement, Co-President, Centene cPRIDE Employee Inclusion Group, HealthNet
Shirley Lam, Senior Program Associate, Transform Health
Mia Arias, Director, CalAIM Operations, CalOptima Health
Andrew Kilgust, Director, Medi-Cal and CalAIM, CalOptima Health

This session brings together representatives from multiple health plans to share insights on their approaches to Community Supports. Panelists will discuss the services their programs provide, how these supports are implemented, and the impact they have on members and providers. The discussion will include an overview of Community Supports, clarifying their role within California's health care system and how they differ from CalAIM initiatives.

10:45 AM – 12:15 PM

SESSION 4 COURSES [No Break]

- 4-A Group Chemistry 101: The Secrets of Belonging, Connecting, and Thriving Teams (continued)

[1.5 CE Hours: BRN, BOT, CAMFT, CCLD] [ADHC, ADP]

Raven Tahara, Graphic Facilitator, Draw You Out

- 4-B Best Practices for Occupational and Physical Therapists in the Adult Day Setting [1.5 CE Hours: BOT] [ADHC]

Rochelle Paz, Occupational Therapist, Americana Adult Day Center

Adelina Rachi, Occupational Therapist, Reimagine

More coming soon!

In the Adult Day Health Care setting, the role of occupational and physical therapists is vital—yet regulatory guidance for these positions often leaves room for interpretation. This panel discussion will feature experienced therapists who will share best practices, strategies, and lessons learned in delivering high-quality, person-centered care. Panelists will highlight practical approaches to assessment, treatment planning, documentation, and interdisciplinary collaboration, offering valuable insights that go beyond the written rules.

12:15 PM – 1:30 PM

Networking Luncheon [No CE Hours]

1:30 PM – 3:00 PM

SESSION 5 COURSES [No Break]

- 5-A Child and Adult Care Food Program Update and Town Hall

[No CE Hours] [ADHC, ADP]

Elyse Homel Vitale, Child and Adult Care Food Program Roundtable

Samantha Kay-Daleiden Marshall, Child and Adult Care Food Program Roundtable

Cathy Hardin, Bureau Chief, Community Nutrition Programs Bureau, Child and Adult Care Food Program Branch, California Department of Social Services

Tuesday, November 11, 2025

The California Department of Social Services and the CACFP Roundtable are teaming up to bring you updates about the CACFP - what to expect in this new Program Year, how to connect with resources, and current policy efforts. We will also hold space for questions and conversation in a Town Hall format. Whether you want to learn more about the CACFP and if it would be a good fit for your organization or are an experienced operator looking for answers to questions, this session is for you!

- 5-B ICE Raids and Supporting Communities

[1.5 CE Hours: CCLD] [ADHC, ADP]

Lois Sones, LCSW, Program Director, Community Bridges Elderday Adult Day Health Care

Beth Schroeder, JD, Partner, Raines LLP

Lendy Ruano, Person-Centered Culture and Practices Director, Easterseals Southern CA

Darryl Goodus, MBA, Vice President of Adult Services, Villa Esperanza Services

Diana Almanza, Chief Program Officer, SteppingStone Adult Day Health

Madeleine Barry, Program Director, SteppingStone Adult Day Health

The threat of immigration enforcement actions has created fear and uncertainty for many families participating in Adult Day Programs, particularly in multicultural communities. This panel will explore the current climate surrounding ICE activity and its impact on program participants and their families.

Panelists will discuss how centers can respond with compassion and cultural sensitivity, including strategies for supporting participants who feel threatened, building trust, and ensuring that staff are prepared to provide accurate information and appropriate resources.

The session will also cover ways to help families understand their rights and connect with trusted community partners for legal guidance and support.

- 5-C Prioritizing What Matters Most: A Guide to Advance Care Planning in Serious Illness Care

[1.5 CE Hours: BRN, CAMFT, BOT, CCLD] [ADHC, ADP]

Shirley Otis-Green, MSW, MA, ACSW, LCSW, OSW-CE,

FNAP, FAOSW, Founder and Consultant, Collaborative Caring

Our current healthcare system is fragmented and in need of transformation. Care is inequitably delivered and too often not congruent with patient preferences. Advance care planning conversations lay the foundation for person-centered, family-focused, culturally congruent, goal-concordant quality care. Although ideally occurring over a lifetime, advance care planning conversations are an essential element of primary palliative care and especially important for those who are seriously ill. This interactive workshop will explore best practices in advance care planning. A variety of advanced care planning tools and resources will be provided.

3:15 PM – 4:45 PM

SESSION 6 COURSES [No Break]

- 6-A When Disaster Strikes: Lessons from the Frontlines

[1.5 CE Hours: CCLD] [ADHC, ADP]

Richard Lee, Program Director, Beverly Adult Day Health Care Center

A wildfire has just ignited 10 miles from your center—evacuation orders are in place. What now? Do you have a plan? Are your critical documents easily accessible? Are they stored in physical files or securely stored in the cloud? What essentials will you need?

With natural disasters becoming an ever-present reality in California, preparation is no longer optional—it's essential. In this session, hear firsthand accounts from panelists whose centers have faced the devastation of wildfires and floods. Learn from their experiences and walk away with actionable strategies to safeguard your operations and develop best practices for emergency preparedness. When disaster strikes, will you be ready?

10:15 AM – 12:30 PM

SESSION 8 COURSES [Includes Short Break]

8-A CalAIM & Enhanced Care Management: Deep Dive Best Practices Panel [No CE Hours] [ADHC]

Facilitator: Lena Haroutunian, MSW, Program Director, New Sunrise ADHC

Randy VonFeldt, Senior Manager, Provider Engagement, Co-President, Centene cPRIDE Employee Inclusion Group, HealthNet

Eric Schwimmer, ECM Director, Anthem

Noah Kaplan Ng, ECM Director, LA Care

Marc Lewis, Director of ECM, SteppingStone

As Enhanced Care Management (ECM) continues to take root across California, Adult Day Programs and health plans have gained valuable experience in integrating this model of care. This advanced panel discussion will move beyond the basics to examine best practices that have emerged from real-world implementation. Panelists will share lessons learned in coordinating care across complex systems, building effective partnerships between health plans and community-based providers, and addressing the unique needs of diverse participants. The session will highlight strategies that improve outcomes, streamline communication, and strengthen trust with families, while also exploring ongoing challenges and opportunities for growth in the next phase of ECM.

8-B The Past is Present: How Life Histories Shape Dementia Behaviors

[2 CE Hours: BRN, BOT, CAMFT, CCLD] [ADHC, ADP]

Tami Anastasia, MA, CSA, Dementia Consultant, Educator, & Author

Behaviors in dementia are often deeply rooted in a person's lifelong history. Childhood experiences, cultural expectations, coping mechanisms, and old traumas can resurface and influence how someone with dementia responds in the present. In this session, Tami Anastasia will show how understanding these backstories transforms "difficult behaviors" into meaningful clues. By shifting perspective from problems to patterns, adult day professionals can create more compassionate, personalized, and effective care.

12:30 PM

Conference Concludes

We hope you leave refreshed and excited by all you learned, the friends you found, and the friends you made!
