Part 21: Post-Election Update, COVID-19 Today and Vaccines: An Update and Predictions for 2021 with National and State Partners

December 2 - WHAT WE WILL COVER

Join us for a far ranging conversation that includes the national election and how it may impact policies and services for low-income older adults; examine the impact on your operations of the surge in COVID-19 spread and new stay-at-home orders; and find out how state licensing departments for Adult Day Programs and Adult Day Health Care facilities are responding to support the health and safety of your participants and staff. We will also take a look at the latest news about vaccines; how the state plans to roll out a COVID-19 vaccination program, when it might be available for your staff and your participants, and how you can help.

PRESENTERS

- Amber Christ, Directing Attorney, Justice in Aging
- Lily Horng, MD, Public Health Officer, CA Department of Public Health
- Vicki Smith, Program Administrator for Adult and Aging Services, CA Dept of Social Service, Community Care Licensing
